SUPPLEMENTAL OATH AFTER ALLOWANCE
UNDER 37 CFR § 1.67

Honorable Commissioner for Patents
Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Subsequent to the subject Notice of Allowance dated 21 August 2007 upon careful examination of the prosecution file history with the Applicant (Inventor), diligently discloses that the original oath filed 23 July 2003 bears a scrivener error regarding the spelling of the Applicant's name, which has resulted in the unfortunate promulgation of this discrepancy throughout the file history. The Applicant fully acknowledging the requirements of 37 CFR § 1.67, respectfully requests that the subject supplemental oath, which corrects the defects in the original oath and acknowledges the full breadth of the amendments undertaken in the prosecution of the above captioned application subsequent to the subject Notice of Allowance dated 21 August 2007 be entered into the file jacket. Wherein the original oath evidences a scrivener error, misspelling the Inventor's name based upon the transposition of the first letter "e" in her given name, as the correct spelling of the Inventor's given name is Leatrice rather than Latriece as originally shown. Further, support can be found upon examination of page two (2) of the Declaration executed by the Inventor on 23 July 2003, which clearly evidences the Applicant's signature pursuant to 18 USC § 1001 that the Inventor's name is misspelled and should be corrected in accordance with 37 CFR §§ 1.63, 1.67.

REMARKS

This request for entry of the supplemental oath is put forth merely to correct the scrivener error in respect to the Applicant's name and to ensure that the diligent disclosure and remedy of the defective oath is timely satisfied. No new matter is presented to either the specification and/or claims as a function of this oath. Nor is there any deceptive intent on the part of the Applicant in the submission of this supplemental oath. It is the express desire of the Applicant to ensure that the data submitted by way of this supplemental oath satisfy the requirements of 37 CFR §§ 1.63, 1.67, whereby the grant of letters patent to issue subsequent to the above captioned application allowed 21 August 2007 shall bear the correct name of the Applicant. Entry of the attached supplemental oath is respectfully requested.

Respectfully Submitted,

/Raymond Nathaniel ERVIN Reg. #51,180/
